Emotions

Trace the numbers in the boxes below. Count the faces on each line and write the numbers representing the faces.

Happy

Scared

Brave

Sad

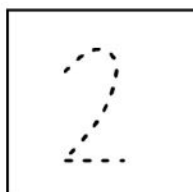

A row of three identical cartoon girl faces with blonde pigtails, looking sad with downturned mouths. To the left of the row is a large empty square box for writing the count.

Angry

A single cartoon boy face with dark skin and curly hair, looking angry with furrowed brows and a wide-open mouth showing teeth. To the left of the face is a large empty square box for writing the count.
